

BOOK LOVING SCHOOL!

Thank you for such great support for our World Book Day today (6th March!!) There were some great costumes and children across school were very excited to celebrate the day. We had a super time in assembly sharing why reading is so important. Every class has use a book to inspire some Art work throughout the week and every child will go out with a free book for World Book Day!

BOOK LOVING SCHOOL!

