

Let's Talk about Sex

It's quiz time! Take the quiz to see how much you can remember about the topic of sex.

1. What is sexual intercourse?

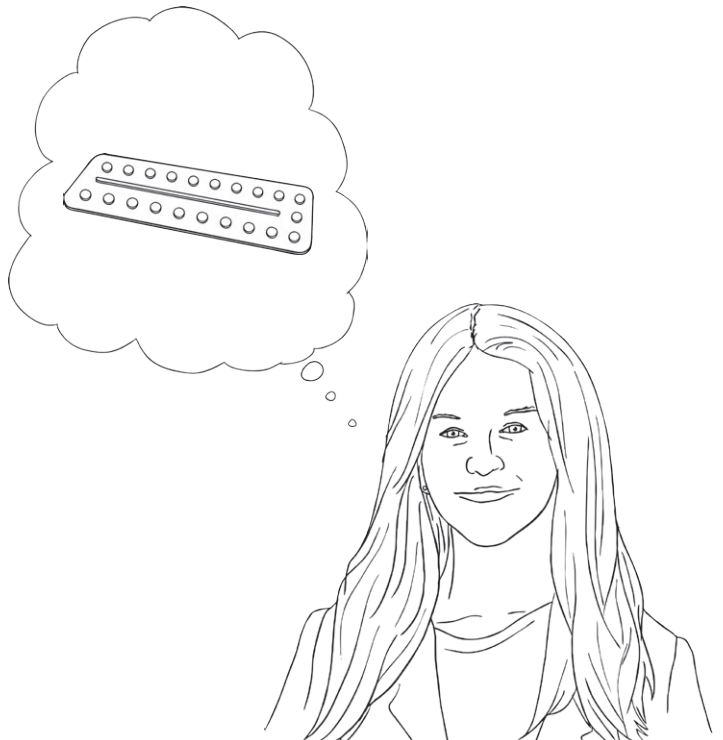

- ☐ two people who love each other and give each other lots of hugs and kisses
- ☐ the time when a baby is born
- ☐ sexual contact between individuals involving penetration, especially the insertion of a man's erect penis into a woman's vagina

2. Why might two people want to have sexual intercourse?

- ☐ to make a baby
- ☐ to show off to their friends
- ☐ to show their partner that they really love them
- ☐ because they think the other person wants them to
- ☐ because they think everyone else is having sex

3. How old must both people in a relationship be, in the UK, to have sexual intercourse?

- ☐ 18
- ☐ 21
- ☐ 13
- ☐ 16
- ☐ 15

This resource is fully in line with the Learning Outcomes and Core Themes outlined in the PSHE Association Programme of Study.

4. Can any two people above the age of consent have a sexual relationship?

- ☐ yes, as long as both people want to
- ☐ yes, as long as they are married
- ☐ yes, as long as they are not closely related, such as a parent, child, brother, sister, or grandparent
- ☐ only if they have been in a relationship for a year

5. What does having a 'crush' or 'fancying someone' mean?

- ☐ You feel excited when you see that person.
- ☐ You wish that person could be your girlfriend or boyfriend.
- ☐ You really admire that person and want to be like them.
- ☐ You like looking at pictures of that person and maybe have a picture on your wall or on your phone.

6. What happens during sexual intercourse that means a baby may be conceived?

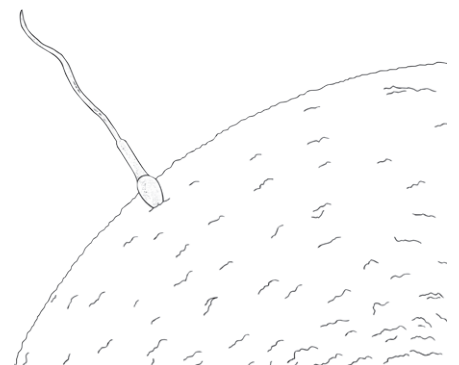

- ☐ The woman releases an egg into the man's penis.
- ☐ The man releases sperm into the woman's vagina.
- ☐ The man releases sperm into the woman's vagina and the sperm fertilises an egg.

7. What can a couple do if they want a sexual relationship, but do not want to make a baby?

- ☐ They could both keep their underwear on when they have sex.
- ☐ The woman could take the contraceptive pill, if prescribed by her doctor.
- ☐ The man could wear a condom on his penis to catch the sperm.

8. What does STI stand for?

- ☐ Sexually Transmitted Infection
- ☐ Slightly Terrible Infection
- ☐ Sexually Transferred Ideas
- ☐ Sexy Talented Individuals

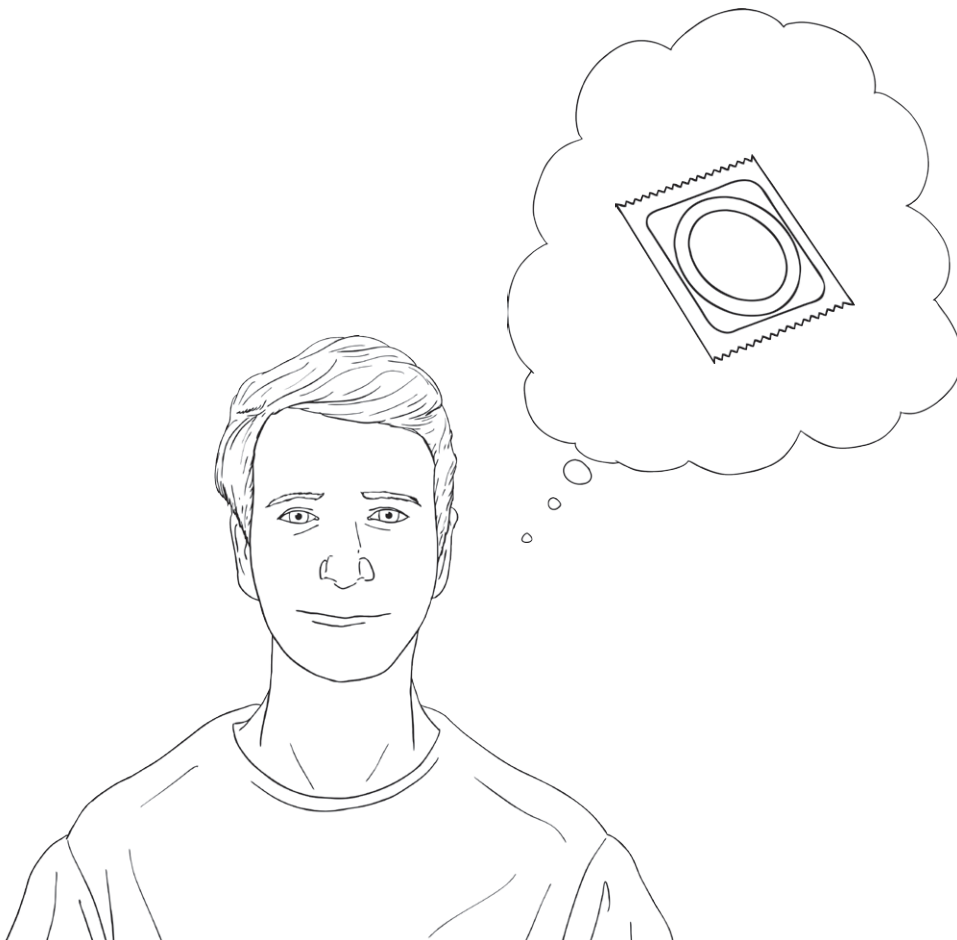

This resource is fully in line with the Learning Outcomes and Core Themes outlined in the PSHE Association Programme of Study.

9. How can people protect themselves from getting an STI?

- ☐ Avoid having sexual intercourse.
- ☐ The man can wear a condom during sexual intercourse.
- ☐ The woman can take a contraceptive pill, if prescribed by her doctor.
- ☐ By having a shower straight after having sexual intercourse.

10. What is safe sex?

- ☐ Wearing crash helmets during sexual intercourse.
- ☐ Making sensible choices about sexual relationships.
- ☐ Using protection, such as a condom, during sexual intercourse.
- ☐ Getting to know and trust someone before starting a sexual relationship.

This resource is fully in line with the Learning Outcomes and Core Themes outlined in the PSHE Association Programme of Study.

Let's Talk about Sex Answers

It's quiz time! Take the quiz to see how much you can remember about the topic of sex.

1. What is sexual intercourse?

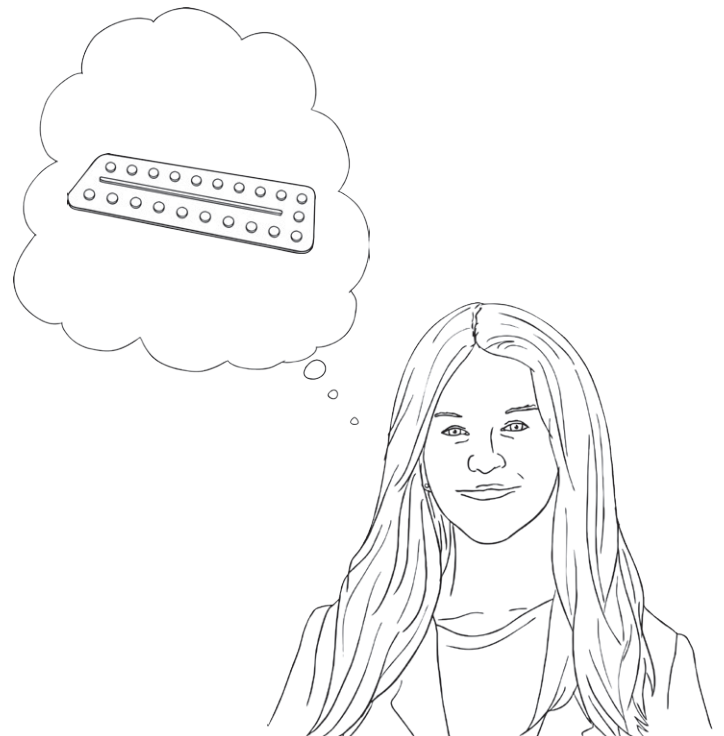

- ☐ two people who love each other and give each other lots of hugs and kisses
- ☐ the time when a baby is born
- ☒ sexual contact between individuals involving penetration, especially the insertion of a man's erect penis into a woman's vagina

2. Why might two people want to have sexual intercourse?

- ☒ to make a baby
- ☐ to show off to their friends
- ☒ to show their partner that they really love them
- ☐ because they think the other person wants them to
- ☐ because they think everyone else is having sex

3. How old must both people in a relationship be, in the UK, to have sexual intercourse?

- ☐ 18
- ☐ 21
- ☐ 13
- ☒ 16
- ☐ 15

This resource is fully in line with the Learning Outcomes and Core Themes outlined in the PSHE Association Programme of Study.

4. Can any two people above the age of consent have a sexual relationship?

- ☒ yes, as long as both people want to
- ☐ yes, as long as they are married
- ☒ yes, as long as they are not closely related, such as a parent, child, brother, sister, or grandparent
- ☐ only if they have been in a relationship for a year

5. What does having a 'crush' or 'fancying someone' mean?

- ☒ You feel excited when you see that person.
- ☒ You wish that person could be your girlfriend or boyfriend.
- ☒ You really admire that person and want to be like them.
- ☒ You like looking at pictures of that person and maybe have a picture on your wall or on your phone.

6. What happens during sexual intercourse that means a baby may be conceived?

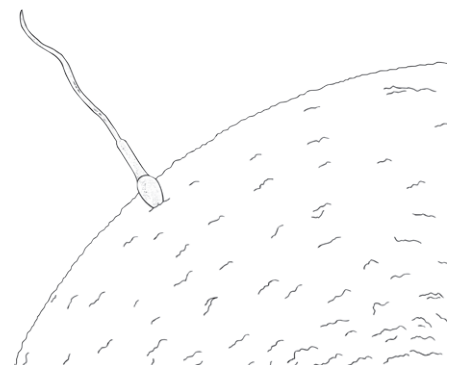

- ☐ The woman releases an egg into the man's penis.
- ☐ The man releases sperm into the woman's vagina.
- ☒ The man releases sperm into the woman's vagina and the sperm fertilises an egg.

7. What can a couple do if they want a sexual relationship, but do not want to make a baby?

- ☐ They could both keep their underwear on when they have sex.
- ☒ The woman could take the contraceptive pill, if prescribed by her doctor.
- ☒ The man could wear a condom on his penis to catch the sperm.

8. What does STI stand for?

- ☒ Sexually Transmitted Infection
- ☐ Slightly Terrible Infection
- ☐ Sexually Transferred Ideas
- ☐ Sexy Talented Individuals

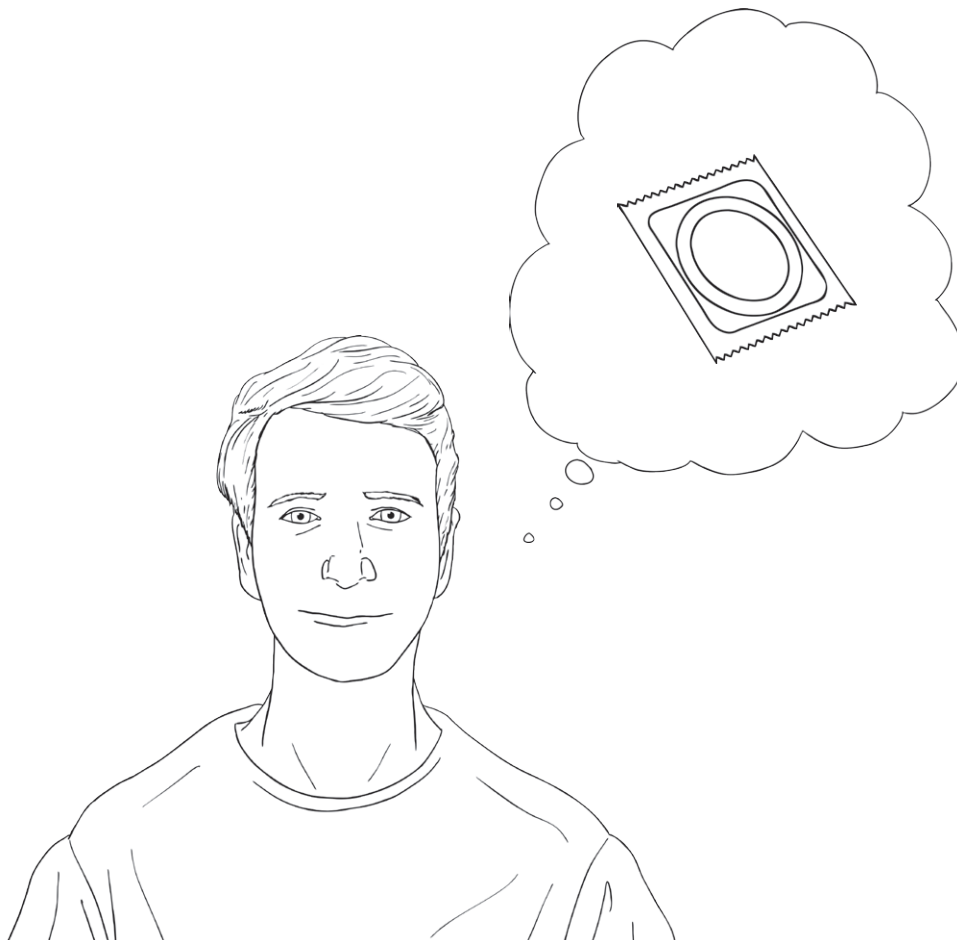

This resource is fully in line with the Learning Outcomes and Core Themes outlined in the PSHE Association Programme of Study.

9. How can people protect themselves from getting an STI?

- ☐ Avoid having sexual intercourse.
- ☒ The man can wear a condom during sexual intercourse.
- ☐ The woman can take a contraceptive pill, if prescribed by her doctor.
- ☐ By having a shower straight after having sexual intercourse.

10. What is safe sex?

- ☐ Wearing crash helmets during sexual intercourse.
- ☐ Making sensible choices about sexual relationships.
- ☒ Using protection, such as a condom, during sexual intercourse.
- ☐ Getting to know and trust someone before starting a sexual relationship.

This resource is fully in line with the Learning Outcomes and Core Themes outlined in the PSHE Association Programme of Study.